the sino western cultural relations journal of which 38 fascicles were published between 1979 and 2016 is a mine of information on issues events articles and reviews on the subject it attracted at first a very small constituency of experts in this relatively new field of research at first focusing on the early china mission but then widening its scope and addressing the whole area of cultural relations between china and the west this journal was edited and financed single handedly by david e mungello who is known as a historian and an outstanding leibniz expert swcrj published contributions in english german french and chinese thus also supporting the growing interest in the subject in china the present bibliography provides a complete listing of the contents of the journal and facilitates access by a name and a subject index it is common knowledge that everything of value may be found on the internet but whoever puts this statement to the test will soon find out that everything actually means something therefore the few serious students of the field will welcome the present modest bibliography what elements of american political and rhetorical culture block the imagining and thus the electing of a woman as president examining both major party and third party campaigns by women including the 2008 campaigns of hillary clinton and sarah palin the authors of woman president confronting postfeminist political culture identify the factors that limit electoral possibilities for women pundits have been predicting women s political ascendancy for years and yet although the 2008 presidential campaign featured hillary clinton as an early frontrunner for the democratic presidential nomination and sarah palin as the first female republican vice presidential nominee no woman has yet held either of the top two offices the reasons for this are complex and varied but the authors assert that the question certainly encompasses more than the shortcomings of women candidates or the demands of the particular political moment instead the authors identify a pernicious backlash against women presidential candidates one that is expressed in both political and popular culture in woman president confronting postfeminist political culture kristina horn sheeler and karrin vasby anderson provide a discussion of us presidentiality as a unique rhetorical role within that framework they review women s historical and contemporary presidential bids placing special emphasis on the 2008 campaign they also consider how presidentiality is framed in candidate oratory campaign journalism film and television digital media and political parody
