Introductio Ad Latinam Blasoniam. An Essay to a More Correct Blason in Latine Than Formerly Hath Been Used. ... 1682 hana schank had never given much thought to her wedding or even really imagined herself married so when she found herself suddenly sporting a brand new engagement ring she assumed planning a small low key wedding would be no big deal but soon she finds herself adrift in wedding land a world where all brides are expected to want to look like cinderella where women plan weddings with fantasy butterfly themes where a woman s wedding is without question the happiest day of her life despite her best efforts not to become a bridezilla hana finds herself transformed from a thirty year old woman with a 401 k into a nearly unrecognizable version of herself as she spends weeks crafting save the date cards worries about matching her cocktails to her wedding colors and obsessively reads martha stewart weddings magazine she decides that if she is going to follow traditions like wearing white and walking down the aisle with flowers she at least wants to understand why in her search she turns up interesting wedding facts bridesmaids for instance were originally recruited to confuse evil spirits ultimately she casts a critical eye on the 72 billion wedding industry from the women at wedding websites who cackle over the etiquette missteps of others to wedding magazines that provide checklists of 187 tasks to plan the perfect wedding suggesting that to have anything less is to fail as a bride as a woman as a wife part confessional memoir part social critique a more perfect union chronicles a year in wedding land capturing as it does not only the stresses but the undoubted joys of becoming a bride
