Shakuntala Bhargava's story of a thirty-six-year-old woman widowed at an early age and a reader in English presents a protagonist in whom are blended innocence and naivete with an urge for independence and feminist ideas. Sangeeta Chawani is banished by her aristocratic Sindhi family to the quiet ashram of Dukh Dour, a Gandhian haven of simple living and high thinking where they hope she will pursue her doctoral dissertation on Dorothy Richardson and forget her love affair with Iqbal, a divorced Muslim dentist but matters other than literature and the quiet life keep intruding. Her childhood memories, the stories of Sind and its folk tales narrated to her by elderly relations, as Bhargava presents a cross-section of Indian society with a touch of satire and humour.
