Reading the Letter to Titus in Light of Crete 2023-11-20 this volume argues that titus s invocation of crete affected the ways early readers developed their identities using archaeological data classical writings and early christian documents he describes multiple traditions that circulated on crete and throughout the roman empire concerning cretan zeus cretan social structure and cretan judaism he then uses these traditions to interpret titus and explain how the letter would intersect with and affect readers identities because readers had differing conceptions of crete based on their location and access to and evaluation of cretan traditions readers would have developed their identities in multiple conflictual even contradictory ways

The Arts of Writing, Reading and Speaking, in Letters to a Law Student 1863 educational resource for teachers parents and kids

Letters to Parents in Reading 1998 dead letters to nietzsche examines how writing shapes subjectivity through the example of nietzsche s reception by his readers including stanley rosen david farrell krell georges bataille laurence lampert pierre klossowski and sarah kofman more precisely joanne faulkner finds that the personal identification that these readers form with nietzsche s texts is an enactment of the kind of identity formation described in lacanian and kleinian psychoanalysis this investment of their subjectivity guides their understanding of nietzsche s project the revaluation of values not only does this work make a provocative contribution to nietzsche scholarship but it also opens in an original way broader philosophical questions about how readers come to be invested in a philosophical project and how such investment alters their subjectivity
