Marvin Kreitman the luggage baron of South London lives for sex or at least he lives for women at present he loves four women his mother his wife Hazel and his two daughters and is in love with five more Charlie Merriweather on the other hand nice Charlie loves just the one woman also called Charlie the wife with whom he has been writing children's books and having nice sex for twenty years once a week the two friends meet for a Chinese lunch contriving never quite to have the conversation they would like to have about fidelity and womanising and which makes you happier until today it is Charlie who takes the dangerous step of asking for a piece of Marvin's disordered life but what follows embroils them all the wives no less than the husbands and none of them will ever be the same again

Coming From Behind 2011-03-31

in an ever divided britain this wryly observed novel is a timely and thought provoking read from the booker winning author of the finkler question a very funny bitterly intelligent novel do read it malcolm bradbury sefton goldberg mid thirties english teacher at wrottesley poly in the west midlands small sweaty lustful defiantly unappreciative of beer nature and organised games gnawingly aware of being an urban jew islanded in a sea of country loving anglo saxons obsessed by failure morbidly in his own case gloatingly in that of his contemporaries so much so that he plans to write a bestseller on the subject in the meantime he is uncomfortably aware of advancing years and atrophying achievement and no amount of lofty rationalisation can disguise the triumph of friends and colleagues not only from cambridge days but even within the despised walls of the poly itself or sweeten the bitter pill of another s success

The Making of Henry 2004

out of the blue henry nagel receives a solicitor s letter telling him he has inherited a sumptuous apartment in st john s wood he is glad to escape the north where there is nothing and no one to keep him after nearly 60 years of disappointment his life is about to change winner of the 2010 man booker prize karl leon forelock is a product of the northern english town of partington the wettest spot in europe and a graduate with a double starred first in the moral decencies from malapert college cambridge sent to sydney on a cia bursary on a mission to teach the australians how to live leon quickly discovers that there are some natives who believe that they have an education to pass on in return but it is at the hands of the women in australia that leon receives his most painful and on occasions his most pleasurable lessons meanwhile in a foul dilapidated bush privy way up in the bogong high plains the redback sucks her teeth and waits her turn

Roots Schmoots 1995-08-01

when fast breaking political events forced british novelist jacobson peeping tom to put off a trip to lithuania planned as a search for his jewish roots he accepted an offer from the bbc to visit jewish communities around the globe instead this informed and witty account of his experiences deals with the wide variety of contemporary jewish life as well as with how jacobson s observations affected his own concept of what it means to be a jew riding an emotional roller coaster he witnessed the hostility between jews and african americans in new york city attended services in a gay synagogue in california and found his basic cynicism about religion reinforced after he spent time with orthodox jews in israel although his spirits were lifted by a visit to an idealistic tolerant israeli kibbutz his journey concluded with the postponed trip to lithuania where the author found virulent anti semitism

The Act of Love 2010-12-15

frank ritz is a television critic his partner melissa paul is the author of pornographic novels for liberated women he watches crap all day she writes crap all day it s a life or it was a life but now they re fighting locked in oral combat he won t shut up and she is putting her finger down her throat again so there s only one thing for it frank has to go but go where and do what frank ritz has been on heat more or less continuously since he could speak his own name let him out of the house and his first instinct is to go looking for sex deviant sex treacherous sex even straight sex so long as it s immoderate he s never been choosy but what happens when sex is all you know but no longer what you want

No More Mr Nice Guy 2011-08-31

a tender love story this book is alive it pulses with warmth and intelligence the times a wickedly observed novel about falling in love at the end of your life by the man Booker prize winning author of the finkler question at the age of ninety something beryl dusinbery is forgetting everything including her own children she spends her days stitching morbid samplers and tormenting her two carers with tangled tales of her husbands and affairs shimi Carmelli can do up his own buttons walks without a frame and speaks without spitting among the widows of north London he s whispered about as the last of the eligible bachelors he forgets nothing especially not the shame of a childhood incident that has long hung over him there s very little left remaining for either of them but perhaps just enough to heal some of the hurt inflicted along the way and find new meaning in what s left shortlisted for the wingate literary prize 2020

Live a Little 2019-07-04

travelog of tour around australia passing reference to aborigines seen en route commentary of racism in northern australia

In the Land of Oz 1987

barney fogleman has two major preoccupations in life sex and literature he is obsessed by the life and work of a man hailed by many as a genius of the nineteenth century and by barney as a prurient little victorian ratbag this curious propulsion drives him out of finchley and out of the life he shares with sharon and her rampant marvellings to cornwall there he offends serious ramblers with his slip on snakeskin shoes fur coat and antagonism to all things green and growing as he stomps the wild atlantic cliffs on long morbid walks tampering with the truth tangling with the imperious camilla and telling a riotous tale by the winner of the man Booker prize and author of the finkler question

Peeping Tom 2011-02-08

an acutely observed collection of occasional pieces that pick at absurdist life and reveal him to be a quiz a cultural critic gifted with precise comic timing the times the author s prose is always a delight a book that manages the high wire act of being genuinely funny while dispensing genuine wisdom times literary supplement jacobson is one of the great sentence builders of our time i feel i have to raise my game even just to praise in short he is one of the great guardians of language and culture all of it long may he flourish nicholas lezard guardian week after week for eighteen years the booker prize winning novelist howard jacobson wrote a weekly column for the independent reflecting in inimitable style on the sacred and the profane in turn the frivolous and the serious the deeply personal and the most universal the shame and humiliation inherent in death is explored with frank astuteness matisse darts and the power of love are celebrated while cyclists are very much censured and meanwhile a beloved old labrador walks his last walk as life elsewhere hurtles on and away the dog s last walk is a collection of wisdom and iconoclasm for our uncertain times and one that reveals one of our greatest writers in all his humanity sharp and playful surreal and thoughtful and occasionally rather moving new statesman yes jacobson is an entertainer and he does indeed entertain but in a way that stimulates rather than simply amuses sunday telegraph his columns were always one of the best things in the independent funny argumentative contrary and stuffed with ideas as well as a big sympathetic personality philip hensher spectator

The Dog's Last Walk 2017-03-09

one of the all time great memoirs daily telegraph wonderful candid shrewd and moving william boyd laugh out loud glorious and uproarious simon schama howard jacobson s funny revealing and tender memoir of his path to becoming a writer howard jacobson was forty when his first novel was published in mother s boy he traces the life that brought him there born into a working class jewish family in 1940s manchester he did not lack encouragement or subject matter jacobson takes us from childhood and studying at cambridge through landing in sydney as a maverick young professor and on to his first marriage and the birth of his son later he begins new and often surprising ventures in places as disparate as london wolverhampton boscastle and melbourne infused with bittersweet memories of jacobson s parents and friends this is the story of a writer s beginnings and of learning to understand who you are before you can become the writer you were meant to be hilariously brilliant david baddiel howard jacobson brilliantly transforms calamity into rip roaring comedy craig brown mail on sunday

it takes a particular kind of man to want an embroidered polo player astride his left nipple occasionally when I am tired and emotional or consumed with self-dislike I try to imagine myself as someone else a wearer of Yarmouth shirts and fleecy sweats of windbreakers and rugged Tyler shorts of baseball caps with polo players where the section of the brain that concerns itself with aesthetics is supposed to be but the hour passes good men return from fighting Satan in the wilderness the stronger for their struggle and so do I the winner of the 2010 Man Booker Prize Howard Jacobson brims with life in this collection of his most acclaimed journalism from the unusual disposal of his father in law's ashes and the cultural wasteland of Chitty Chitty Bang Bang to the melancholy sensuality of Leonard Cohen and desolation of Wagner's tragedies Jacobson writes with all the thunder and joy of a man possessed absurdity piles upon absurdity and glorious sentences weave together to create a hilarious heartbreaking and uniquely human collection this book is not just a series of parts but an irresistible unputdownable sum which triumphantly out-thurbers Thurber

Whatever It Is, I Don't Like It 2011-09-05

winner of the Man Booker Prize full of wit warmth intelligence human feeling and understanding it is also beautifully written with that sophisticated and near-invisible skill of the authentic writer-observer wonderful Jacobson is seriously on form evening standard Julian Treslove a professionally unspectacular former BBC radio producer and Sam Finkler a popular Jewish philosopher writer and television personality are old school friends despite very different lives they've never quite lost touch with each other or with their former teacher Libor Sevcik both Libor and Finkler are recently widowed and together with Treslove they share a sweetly painful evening revisiting a time before they had loved and lost it is that very evening when Treslove hesitates a moment as he walks home that he is attacked and his whole sense of who and what he is slowly and ineluctably changes how is it possible to read Howard Jacobson and not lose oneself in admiration for the music of his language the power of his characterisation and the penetration of his insight the Finkler question is further proof if any was needed of Jacobson's mastery of humour the times there are few writers who exhibit the same unawed respect for language or such a relentless commitment to re-examining even the most seemingly unobjectionable of received wisdoms daily telegraph pedagogic frailty and resilience in the university presents a theoretical model and a practical tool to support the professional development of reflective university teachers it can be used to highlight links to key issues in higher education pedagogic frailty exists where the quality of interaction between elements in the evolving teaching environment succumbs to cumulative pressures that eventually inhibit the capacity to develop teaching practice indicators of frailty can be observed at different resolutions from the individual to the departmental or the institutional chapters are written by experts in their respective fields who critique the frailty model from the perspectives of their own research this will help readers to make practical links between established bodies of research literature and the concept of frailty and to form a coherent and integrated view of higher education this can then be explored and developed by individuals departments or institutions to inform and evaluate their own enhancement programmes this may support the development of greater resilience to the demands of the teaching environment in comparison with other commonly used terms we have found that the term frailty has improved resonance with the experiences of colleagues across the disciplines in higher education and elicits a personal sometimes emotional response to their professional situation that encourages positive dialogue debate and reflection that may lead to the enhancement of university teaching this book offers a particular route through the fractured discourses of higher education pedagogy creating a coherent and cohesive perspective of the field that may illuminate the experiences and observations of colleagues within the profession if we are to realise the promise of higher education we will need the concepts methods and reflections contained in this book robert
