an entertaining railway memoir covering the diesel modernisation aspects of railway and locomotive operations are explained clearly with detailed examples will appeal to readers with a specialised interest in railway technology engineering and history i would have done the job for nothing is a fly on the wall account detailing behind the scenes events of running a railway including the odd occasion when the fly got swatted it covers life in a busy locomotive works at crewe during the age of steam and how the authors career developed and led to his moving from the wirral to the east midlands to work in the derby locomotive drawing office he later transferred to the headquarters at derby just as the diesel rail car modernisation began working for this new team they identified and resolved many issues of the new diesel locomotives many of the facts within this book may never have been told first hand and although some were almost hilarious others could have been far more serious and ultimately dangerous to the public if they have not been dealt with the book aims to detail the attraction of engineering and the highs and lows of the job itself it will appeal to readers with a specialised interest in locomotives railway engineering and history

My promise - how I kept it. Peace! what I have done to promote it. A reminiscence of the Turco-Russian war ...

my book is about the vicissitudes of life that god can take you through any adversity you are experiencing on your journey in life and bring you to your consciousness by faith from your lowest point to the largest point in life god wants us to depend on him solely for everything and not to put our trust in material things of life as long as we believe jesus is god s son who came into this world to be the savior jesus doesn t want us to condemn ourselves but to be saved we need to respond to god s love and believe in his son jesus christ god certainly loves us what a comfort to know that his assurance is there even when you are weighed down with care and confusion with worry and nervousness beyond our life if we really and truly have faith in god and in his word his promise of eternal life makes our life complete if we can only gain this view of our life then much of our pain and unhappiness in our daily lives would vanish things that annoy you in the day or month or year will disappear because beyond them lies the unending views of life with god the issue of a believer s security in christ has been abused by some he doesn t want you to live carelessly but if you go that way he is waiting with outstretched hands to receive you once you are penitent christians do not love jesus enough indeed on a scale of 1 to 10 the average christian s love for him scores no more that 10 this is the startling message of lloyd david elcock s first volume of a series of scriptural expositions that he proposes to publish under the rubric what the gentiles have done to christianity the foundation upon which he has built this series includes the following three cornerstones biblical christianity can accurately and justifiably also be called jewish christianity after the control and direction of biblical jewish christianity was passed from jewish to gentile hands at the beginning of the 2nd century ad the gentiles comprehensively deformed it and 1200 years later partially reformed it the salvage and recovery of biblical jewish christianity begun five hundred years ago by luther calvin and the other gentile protestant reformers is only fifty percent completed in particular a number of the most fundamental doctrines of biblical jewish christianity are yet to be recovered and their absence from today s evangelical church is the sole and single reason for the widespread carnality and stunted spiritual growth that characterizes the lifestyle of the overwhelmingly vast majority of born again christians everywhere in the western world in this first volume the author puts forward the view that one of those as yet unretrieved fundamental doctrines is the major key to the spirit filled life of love faith and power that is the ultimate goal of both biblical christianity and gentile evangelical christianity that key he says is hidden in plain view out in the open in the pages of the fourteenth chapter of the gospel according to the apostle john
