bertolt brecht once worried that how we feel about the victims of a social problem can get in the way of the beauty and attraction of the problem itself in this book walter benn michael's explores the same dilemma through a study of several contemporary artist photographers whose work speaks to questions of political economy michael's focuses on the work of several artists mostly born in the 1970s and thus raised in a world where artistic ambition has been identified with a critique of autonomous form and of meaning as a function of intention michael's shows that these artists engage but also push beyond this critique of autonomy and intentionality producing works that embody a new commitment to form and meaning the explanation for this commitment he argues is these artists consciousness of making art in an economy riven by structural conflict especially an unprecedented rise in inequality for them he argues the relationship of the art work to the world to its subject and to its beholder functions as an emblem of the relation between classes rather than identities or subject positions this book will join the short shelf of essential writings about the medium of photography

Natural Law in the Spiritual World 1884 this volume deploys theology in a reconstructive approach to contemporary literary criticism to validate and exemplify theological readings of literary texts as a creative exercise it engages in a dialogue with interdisciplinary approaches to literature in which theology is alert and responsive to the challenges following postmodernism and postmodern literary criticism it demonstrates the scope and explanatory power of theological readings across various texts and literary genres theology and literature after postmodernity explores a reconstructive approach to reading and literary study in the university setting with contributions from interdisciplinary scholars worldwide

Beautiful Lives 2010-08-01 lois weber 1879 1939 was one of early hollywood s most successful screenwriter directors a one time church army worker who preached from street corners weber began working in the american film industry as an actress around 1908 but quickly ascended to the positions of screenwriter and director she wrote directed starred in edited and titled hundreds of movies during her career and is believed to be the first woman to direct a feature film at the height of her influence weber used her medium to address pressing social issues such as birth control abortion capital punishment poverty and drug abuse she gained international fame in 1915 with her controversial hypocrites a complex film that featured full female nudity as part of its important moral lesson her most famous film where are my children was the universal studio s biggest box office hit the following year and played to enthusiastic audiences around the globe these productions and many others contributed to her standing as a truly world class filmmaker despite her many successes weber was pushed out of the business in the 1930s as a result of hollywood s institutionalized sexism shoved into the corners of film history she remained a largely forgotten figure for decades lois weber interviews restores her long muted voice by reprinting more than sixty items in which she expressed her views on a range of filmic subjects the volume includes interviews articles that weber wrote the text of a speech she gave and reconstructed conversations with her hollywood coworkers lois weber interviews provides key insights into one of our first great writer directors her many films and the changing business in which she worked

he enjoys and enjoys as he judges this latter kind really reproduces the work of art anew the division of our symposium into three sections is justified by the fact that phenomenology from husserl heidegger moritz geiger ingarden in germany and poland merleau ponty paul ricoeur e levinas in france unamuno in spain and tymieniecka in the united states have revealed striking coincidences in trying to answer the following questions what is the philosophical vocation of literature does literature have any significance for our lives why does the lyric moment present in all creative endeavors in myth dance plastic art ritual poetry lift the human life to a higher and authentically human level of the existential experience of man our investigations answer our fundamental inquiry what makes a literary work a work of art what makes a literary work a literary work if not aesthetic enjoyment as much as the formation of an aesthetic language culminates in artistic creation the formation of a philosophical language lives within the orbit of creative imagination

this volume examines mystical experiences as portrayed in various ways by authors such as philosophers mystics psychoanalysts writers and peasant women these mystical authors have throughout the ages attempted to convey the unsayable through writings paintings or oral stories the immediate experience of god is the primary source and ultimate goal of these mystical expressions this experience is essentially ineffable yet all mystical authors either consciously or unconsciously feel an urge to convey what they have undergone in the moments of rapture at the same time they are in the role of intermediaries the goal of their self expression either written painted or oral is to make others somehow understand or feel what they have experienced and to lead others toward the spiritual goal of human life this volume studies the mystical experiences and the way they have been described or portrayed in west european culture from antiquity to the present from an interdisciplinary perspective and approaches the concept of immediate experience in various ways

The Jātaka 1895 the poverty of eros in plato s symposium offers an innovative new approach towards eros and the concept of eros in the symposium lorelle d lamascus argues that plato s depiction of eros as the child of poverty penia and resource poros is central to understanding the nature of love eros is traditionally seen as self interested or acquisitive but this book argues instead that eros and reason are properly in accord with one another the moral life and the philosophical life alike depend upon properly trained and directed eros lamascus demonstrates that the presentation of the nature of poverty is essential to the nature of eros in the symposium doing this through in depth discussion of the major twentieth century interpretations of platonic eros the book shows that poverty provides an appropriate directing of eros towards eternal and unchanging goods and away from an age geared towards material items and wealth and thus that plato s mythical treatment of eros in the symposium lays the groundwork for understanding the soul's embrace of poverty as a way of living loving and knowing

Lois Weber 2019-01-25 in his monumental study christopher braider explores the dialectical contest between history and truth that defines the period of cultural transition called the baroque for example annibale carracci's portrayal of the stoic legend of hercules at the crossroads departs from earlier more static representations that depict an emblematic demigod who has already rejected the fallen path of worldly pleasure for the upward road of heroic virtue braider argues that in breaking with tradition in order to portray a tragic soliloquist whose dominant trait is agonized indecision carracci joins other baroque artists poets and philosophers in rehearsing the historical dilemma of choice itself carracci's picture thus becomes a framing device that illuminates phenomena as diverse as the construction of gender in baroque painting and science the pauline ontology of art in caravaggio and rembrandt the metaphysics of baroque soliloquy and the dismantling of cartesian dualism in cyrano de bergerac and pascal
