dever and others analytics and artificial intelligence ai what are they good for the bandwagon keeps answering absolutely everything analytics and artificial intelligence have captured the attention of everyone from top executives to the person in the street while these disciplines have a relatively long history within the last ten or so years they have exploded into corporate business and public consciousness organizations have rushed to embrace data driven decision making companies everywhere are turning out products boasting that artificial intelligence is included we are indeed living in exciting times the question we need to ask is do we really know how to get business value from these exciting tools unfortunately both the analytics and ai communities have not done a great job in collaborating and communicating with each other to build the necessary synergies this book bridges the gap between these two critical fields the book begins by explaining the commonalities and differences in the fields of data science artificial intelligence and autonomy by giving a historical perspective for each of these fields followed by exploration of common technologies and current trends in each field the book also readers introduces to applications of deep learning in industry with an overview of deep learning and its key architectures as well as a survey and discussion of the main applications of deep learning the book also presents case studies to illustrate applications of ai and analytics these include a case study from the healthcare industry and an investigation of a digital transformation enabled by ai and analytics transforming a product oriented company into one delivering solutions and services the book concludes with a proposed ai informed data analytics life cycle to be applied to unstructured data discover the prayer habits of world changing ministry leaders that will transform your life and your leadership experienced leaders will tell you that you can t lead on your own the pressure the impossible decisions the high risks the temptations the people the overwhelming schedule it s too much some leaders seek outside help they pray looking for help in their own leadership entrepreneur ryan skoog ceo peter greer and executive advisor cameron doolittle set out to investigate how leaders pray what do they say to god how often do they pray and for how long where do they pray and how on earth do they make time for prayer skoog greer and doolittle spent three years researching they logged over one hundred hours of interviews with leaders in six continents who collectively serve in over one hundred countries they researched or spoke with global entrepreneurs and business executives of fortune 500 companies as well as some of the most influential pastors and ministry leaders in the world leaders such as joni eareckson tada francis chan john mark comer christine caine david green mark batterson among countless others here in this book the authors share the spiritual habits techniques and practices of these world changing leaders revealing specific details of their prayer lives in addition the book includes prayers for leaders to use in their own prayer time as well as tools for how to cultivate a personal and organizational commitment to prayer by allowing these men and women to lead us in prayer we learn not only how to pray but also how to build a culture of prayer wherever we lead it is only when our businesses ministries and churches pray that they will be transformed set in contemporary colorado the autobiography
