a detailed account based on fieldwork and interviews of how women peace and security norms are militarized and put at the service of operational effectiveness international organizations and governments want to increase women s participation in military operations and peacebuilding gender equality is increasingly seen as the antidote to conflict a key factor in achieving stability while feminist activism inspired the emergence of these norms on gender and conflict they were institutionalized through the women peace and security wps agenda with the military at the forefront of those changes in deploying feminism stéfanie von hlatky tells the story of how the military has been delegated authority to advance gender equality as part of their activities while simultaneously tackling increasingly complex threats drawing upon fieldwork and interviews she illustrates how nato the world's foremost alliance has even embedded these ideas in the planning and execution of its missions for troops deployed on nato missions this often means seeking out women in their operating area to improve intelligence gathering activities while this helps the mission does it help women and conflict affected communities because of the military's focus on operational effectiveness above all else von hlatky argues that there is a distortion of wps norms as gender equality concerns fade into the background looking at nato's ongoing operations in iraq kosovo and the baltics deploying feminism details the process by which women peace and security norms are militarized and put at the service of operational effectiveness further it shows why an adjustment is necessary for gender equality to become a true planning priority did you think you knew the facts about women and work think again a terrific book utterly gripping peter edelman author of so rich so poor for women in professional and corporate jobs much of the discrimination and inequity faced in the past has been confronted and at least to some extent conquered but the fact is that we have a two tiered system where some working women have a full panoply of rights while others have few or none at all we allow blatant discrimination by small employers domestic workers are cut out of our wage and overtime laws part time workers disproportionately women are denied basic benefits laws have been written through a process of compromise and negotiation and in each case vulnerable workers were the bargaining chip that was sacrificed to guarantee the policy's enactment for these workers the system that was supposed to act as a safety net has become a sieve and they are still falling through caroline fredrickson is a powerful advocate and dc insider who has witnessed the legislative compromises that leave out temps farmworkers staff at small businesses immigrants and others who fall outside an intentionally narrow definition of employees the women in this fast growing part of the workforce are denied minimum wage maternity leave health care the right to unionize and protection from harassment and discrimination all within the bounds of the law if current trends continue this book looks both backward and forward with regard to the european union s political strategies towards its neighbouring countries by bringing together the perspectives of critical geopolitics policy studies and border studies it presents a comprehensive review of the european neighbourhood policy and how it impacts the ongoing construction of the eu s external frontiers is the eu committed to promoting integration in a wider european space or is a fortress europe emerging where the strengthening of internal cohesion is coupled with the militarisation of its external borders the book aims to problematize this question by showing how the eu s external policies are based on a mixture of openness and closure inclusion and exclusion cooperation and securitisation the european neighbourhood policy is a controversial strategy where regionalization and bordering homogenisations and differentiations centrifugal and centripetal forces proceed side by side in an explicit attempt to construct a selective mobile and fragmented border a specific focus is devoted to the diversity of geo strategies the eu is pursuing in its neighbouring countries and regions macro regional strategies and cross border cooperation initiatives as new scales of cooperation and the role of other global players
