the question what is human nature is in vogue today like everything else this concept is being deconstructed in the context of the reigning ideology of individualistic materialism is there a fixed human nature or is this simply a manipulatable social construct with no objective reference this book says yes there is the imago dei man woman created in the image of god hobson argues that this text from genesis 1 26 28 is a god given anthropological revelation that establishes the relational bond of human beings with their creator and also with his creation for which the imago equips us to be responsible stewards many of hobson s essays were delivered as talks in parishes they explore from multiple angles the import of the imago dei for theological and sacramental reflection apologetics aesthetics art and at a hands on practical level for pastoral counseling and inner healing his texts one of which opens with a discussion of genocide contain incisive critiques of the dark side of modernity alongside wide ranging demonstrations of the pertinence of the imago dei to the current debates about human dignity and rights his book is a ringing call to the church to take the measure of the value of this anthropological revelation for its proclamation of the gospel
