Crescent City Marine 1986 finalist for the alan paton award in his latest book renowned historian hermann giliomee challenges the conventional wisdom on the downfall of white rule and the end of apartheid instead of impersonal forces or the resourcefulness of an indomitable resistance movement he emphasizes the role of nationalist leaders and of their outspoken critic frederick van zyl slabbert what motivated each of the last afrikaner leaders from verwoerd to de klerk how did each try to reconcile economic growth white privilege and security with the demands of an increasingly assertive black leadership and unexpected population figures in exploring each leader s background reasoning and personal foibles giliomee takes issue with the assumption that south africa was inexorably heading for an anc victory in 1994 he argues that historical accidents radically affected the course of politics drawing on primary sources and personal interviews giliomee offers a fresh and stimulating political history that attempts not to condemn but to understand why the last afrikaner leaders did what they did and why their own policies ultimately failed them a 2014 choice outstanding academic title reconsiderations in southern african history
