the most important art historian of his generation is how some scholars have described the late michael baxandall 1933 2007 professor of the classical tradition at the warburg institute university of london and of the history of art at the university of california berkeley baxandall s work had a transformative effect on the study of european renaissance and eighteenth century art and contributed to a complex transition in the aims and methods of art history in general during the 1970s 80s and 90s while influential he was also an especially subtle and independent thinker occasionally a controversial one and many of the implications of his work have yet to be fully understood and assimilated this collection of 10 essays endeavors to assess the nature of baxandall s achievement and in particular to address the issue of the challenges it offers to the practice of art history today this volume provides the most comprehensive assessment of baxandall s work to date while drawing upon the archive of baxandall papers recently deposited at the cambridge university library and the warburg institute this volume contains the official record of the congress of mathematicians held in group of graph theorists decided in 1985 to mark the 150th birthday of petersen in 1989 as well as the centennial of his paper it was felt that the occasion called for a presentation of petersen s famous paper in its historical context and in a wider sense of petersen s life and work as a whole however the readily available information about julius petersen amounted to very little not even a full bibliography existed and virtually nothing was known about the circumstances that led him to write his famous paper the study of petersen s life and work has resulted in several papers in particular a biography a bibliography an annotated edition of the letters surrounding petersen s paper of 1891 an analysis of petersen s paper and an annotated edition of parts of petersen s correspondence with sylow on galois theory the first four of these papers together with a survey of matching theory form the first part of this book in addition to these five special papers there are
