TV & 2002-05 for any digital tv developer or manager the maze of standards and specifications related to mhp and ocap is daunting you have to patch together pieces from several standards to gather all the necessary knowledge you need to compete worldwide the standards themselves can be confusing and contain many inconsistencies and missing pieces interactive tv standards provides a guide for actually deploying these technologies for a broadcaster or product and application developer understanding what the apis do is essential for your job but understanding how the apis work and how they relate to each other at a deeper level helps you do it better faster and easier learn how to spot when something that looks like a good solution to a problem really isn t understand how the many standards that make up mhp fit together and implement them effectively and quickly two dvb insiders teach you which elements of the standards that are needed for digital tv highlight those elements that are not needed and explain the special requirements that mhp places on implementations of these standards once you ve mastered the basics you will learn how to develop products for us european and asian markets saving time and money by detailing how a team can develop products for both the ocap and mhp markets interactive tv standards teaches you how to leverage your experience with one of these standards into the skills and knowledge needed to work with the critical related standards does the team developing a receiver have all the knowledge they need to succeed or have they missed important information in an apparently unrelated standard does an application developer really know how to write a reliable piece of software that runs on any mhp or ocap receiver does the broadcaster understand the business and technical issues well enough to deploy mhp successfully or will their project fail increase your chances of success the first time with interactive tv standards

3days( ) / 2014 la couverture indique alan nadel's new book reminds us that most of the images on early tv were decidedly caucasian and directed at predominantly white audiences television did not invent whiteness for america but it did reinforce it as the norm particularly during the cold war years nadel now shows just how instrumental it was in constructing a narrow conservative and very white vision of america during this era prime time tv was dominated by adult westerns with heroes like the rebel s johnny yuma reincarnating southern values and bonanza s cartwright family reinforcing the notion of white patriarchy programs that nadel shows bristled with cold war messages even as they spoke to the nation s mythology america had become visually reconfigured as a vast penderosa crisscrossed by concrete highways designed to carry suburban white drivers beyond the moral challenge of racism racial poverty and increasingly vocal civil rights demands
