Genre-Störungen 2007 arguing that today s viewers move through a character s brain instead of looking through his or her eyes or mental landscape this book approaches twenty first century globalized cinema through the concept of the neuro image pisters explains why this concept has emerged now and she elaborates its threefold nature through research from three domains deleuzian schizoanalytic philosophy digital networked screen culture and neuroscientific research these domains return in the book's tripartite structure part one on the brain as neuroscreen suggests rich connections between film theory mental illness and cognitive neuroscience part two explores neuro images from a philosophical perspective paying close attention to their ontological epistemological and aesthetic dimensions political and ethical aspects of the neuro image are discussed in part three topics covered along the way include the omnipresence of surveillance the blurring of the false and the real and the affective powers of the neo baroque and the use of neuro images in politics historical memory and war
