a map almost ruined our honeymoon it was our second day of marriage and as we were driving up the olympic peninsula to port angeles i found it difficult to read the map and drive at the same time so i handed the map to my debbie and asked her to tell me where to turn as a new believer i felt like debbie someone hands you a bible and expects you to know how to read it jesus had transformed me into a new creation but i was a baby who did childish things and needed a parent to nurture me along and stimulate my spiritual development i hope that in a way i can be that for you as you read the lessons i learned in my pursuit to be a follower of christ such as learning to effectively tell people how jesus changed my life becoming consistent in spending time alone with god letting prayer be a vital part of my life discovering what helps grow my faith finding an easy way to study the bible and mastering sin in my life i thank my heavenly father and lord jesus for my journey because with each lesson i have grown closer to them as that intimacy deepens so does the longing to be with them in heaven my prayer is that this will happen to you as i share my journey with you

in narrative form this book chronicles the five year journey the author took with her father afflicted with alzheimers to restore his dignity and help him reach his physical mental and spiritual potential it presents the many obstacles including the presence of evil forces and other family members mental disorders which had to be overcome to accomplish this the book illustrates how the common denominator of faith in god and a belief in his supreme will enabled communication with her father with whom she previously had only limited interaction she came to discover the importance of entering her fathers world of confirming his reality and to recognize though parts of the brain may be tangled and even gone the response to spirit and tone actually remains her fathers sensory awareness and understanding increased and she challenges some previous stereotypes held about patients with this disease pragmatically the author gives the caregiver suggestions on how to ensure the patients sense of accomplishment and purpose and maps out daily activity processes the book illustrates how previous experiences enabled them to survive their storm as the author relentlessly struggled to keep her father from being institutionalized so he could remain a participant in this world occasionally in a mans life there is a book or manuscript that comes his way that is so far out of the norm and so deep beyond expectation that it requires thought prayer and time to assimilate the information through meditation theres a storm coming kathryn huddlestons book on the subject of her fathers experience with alzheimers disease and her passion to help him be the very best he could be physically mentally and spiritually is incredible the journey with glimpses into the family life through the eyes of a person with medical insight and ultimately through a spiritual lens allows us to take a peek behind the veil of one of the most difficult and tough situations facing many americans today this book is an incredible read for those who care about the condition of their fellow human beings maury davis senior pastor cornerstone church nashville tn maury davis ministries god brings hope to us in stormy times through these dark years compassion and care for loved ones is always first this could not be more true than in this book michelle stein executive director alzheimers solutions project center for health transformation washington d c the author captures the readers attention by recounting in narrative form how she attempted to overcome the many challenges and trials in her stormy family in order to lessen her fathers turbulence and bring him peace in the last phase of his life in an unassuming authentic way the author illustrates how she ensured her father remained a valued participant in the world giving caregivers concrete ideas on how she helped her father make decisions ensured up close and personal interaction with others and recognized the importance of tone spirit and listening the book should give them a sense of hope e l shoenfelt ph d professor of psychology western kentucky university performance psychologist kathryn huddleston believes that while in the midst of other life storms god gave her the gift to care for her father here she shares that journey in a very personal detailed and honest fashion not only is this a wonderful handbook for the alzheimers caregiver kathryns story affirms my experience of gods daily walk with those who appear to be absent while we may see our loved ones as fading way in reality they may be living the old gospel hymn just a closer walk with thee this book gives the caregiver or any reader great spiritual hope chaplain r gene lovelace alive hospice nashville tn
