postmodernism of resistance in roberto bolaño s fiction and poetry examines the ways in which bolaño employs a type of literary aesthetics that subverts traits traditionally associated with postmodernism pastén b coins these aesthetics postmodernism of resistance and argues that this resistance stands in direct opposition to critical discourses that construe the presence of hopeless characters and marginal settings in Bolaño's works as signs of the writer's disillusionment with the political as a consequence of the defeat of the left in Latin America. Rather, he contends, Bolaño creates a fictional world comprised of characters and situations that paradoxically refuse to accept defeat even while displaying the scars of terrible historical events. In this work, Pastén B challenges some critical assumptions about Bolaño's fiction and poetry that led to decontextualized interpretations of his work and offers a singularly comprehensive investigation that synthesizes multiple perspectives of a complicated author into one text.

Monsieur Pain vereint in sich das Beste von Borges und Poe: ein halluzinatorisches Meisterwerk. Im Frühling 1938 wird Monsieur Pain ein Akupunkteur und Anhänger des Magnetismus in ein pariser Krankenhaus gerufen. Er soll den peruanischen Dichter César Vallejo von einem rätselhaften Schluckauf heilen. Doch noch bevor er helfen kann, sieht sich Pain in eine komplexe Intrige verwickelt. Wer ist dieser Südamerikaner, der dort im Krankenhaus vor sich hinstirbt, und warum wünschen sich einige dunkle Kräfte seinen Tod allein? Pain erkennt, was sich hinter den Kulissen abspielt. Dabei ist er gar kein Held, sondern ein ganz gewöhnlicher Mann, alleinstehend, heimlich verliebt in Madame Reynaud und offensichtlich auserwählt, sich mit diesem mysteriösen Fall auseinanderzusetzen. Bolaño ist unsterblich. The Washington Post

Postmodernism of Resistance in Roberto Bolaño's Fiction and Poetry 2020

Roberto Bolaño as World Literature provides an introduction to the Chilean novelist that highlights his connections with classic and contemporary masters of world literature and his investigation of topics of international interest such as the rise of rightwing and neofascist movements during the last decades of the 20th century. But this anthology also shows how Roberto Bolaño's participation in world literature is informed in his experiences, identity and more generally cultural location as a Chilean, Latin American and more generally Hispanic writer. And man, this book provides a corrective to readings of his novels as exclusively postmodern or as unproblematically representative of Chilean or Latin American reality. Roberto Bolaño as World Literature thus helps readers to better understand such complex works as his monumental global five-part masterpiece 2666, his Chilean novels Distant Star by Night in Chile and his Mexican narratives Amulet, The Savage Detectives among other works.

This book establishes the genealogy of a subgenre of crime fiction that Antoine Dechéne calls the metacognitive mystery tale. It delineates a corpus of texts presenting unreadable mysteries which, under the deceptively monolithic appearance of subverting traditional detective story conventions, offer a multiplicity of motifs: the overwhelming presence of chance, the unfulfilled quest for knowledge, the urban stroller lost in a labyrinthine text that generate a vast array of epistemological and ontological uncertainties. Analysing the works of a wide variety of authors including Edgar Allan Poe, Jorge Luis Borges and Henry James, this book is vital reading for scholars of detective fiction.

El "Paraíso Infernal" en la narrativa de Roberto Bolaño 2011-01-01

This volume is a collection of thirteen essays built around the question: what is the supernatural and how and why has it changed over time? It is divided into two complementary sections: the first focussing on research on the discourse of the supernatural, including the miraculous located in the medieval and early modern eras, and the second consisting of a set of test cases involving research on the uncanny, often articulated in a post-Freudian sense as expressed in modern literature, film and art. The eclectic and prismatic approach pursued via a variety of test cases of the supernatural in this book gives rise to a clear comparative and diachronic study of the main characteristics of the supernatural.
