A title page is required for all APA style papers. There are both student and professional versions of the title page. Students should use the student version of the title page unless their instructor or institution has requested they use the professional version. This article reflects the APA 7th edition guidelines. Click here for APA 6th edition guidelines. APA provides different guidelines for student and professional papers. The student version of the APA title page should include the following information: double spaced and centered paper title, author name, and the year.

The title page is the first page of a paper that includes essential information like the title, name(s) of the author(s), and the affiliation of each author. Typically, their school or institution. The title page acts as an introduction to the paper.
