the pals battalions were a phenomenon of the great war never repeated since under lord derby's scheme and in response to kitchener's famous call for a million volunteers local communities raised and initially often paid for entire battalions for service on the western front their experience was all too frequently tragic as men who had known each other all their lives had worked volunteered and trained together and had shipped to france together encountered the first full fury of modern battle on the somme in july 1916 many of the pals battalions would not long survive that first brutal baptism but their spirit and fighting qualities have gone down into history these were truly the cream of britain's young men and every single one of them was a volunteer this is a comprehensive history of the tyneside irish brigade raised in the north east it covers their raising training and active service as well as the aftermath of the war and how it effected the local community included is an invaluable nominal roll which will appeal to local family and military enthusiasts alike
