since 1998 which marked the end of the thirty three year new order regime under president suharto there has been a dramatic increase in ethnic conflict and violence in indonesia in his innovative and persuasive account jacques bertrand argues that conflicts in maluku kalimantan aceh papua and east timor were a result of the new order s narrow and constraining reinterpretation of indonesia s national model the author shows how at the end of the 1990s this national model came under intense pressure at the prospect of institutional transformation a reconfiguration of ethnic relations and an increase in the role of islam in indonesia s political institutions it was within the context of these challenges that the very definition of the indonesian nation and what it meant to be indonesian came under scrutiny the book sheds light on the roots of religious and ethnic conflict at a turning point in indonesia s history
