Welcome to the Dance USN 2013-08-27 my name is mehmet hakan Özyurt i am the writer and also the seagull of this book covering my three individual unpublished books the seagull in desert the seagull in noah s ark and the seagull in mhakoz when you read you will see they are very well completing each other due to that i decided to put them together under a cover book like my other one to serve you but this time with my full name and own picture i believe that this format is useful and interesting when needed they can also be published individually with their pictures and contents anyway having said that let me introduce my books first the first and also the main one after years of patience dedication and effort i ve finally produced the seagull in desert its interesting and meaningful name came from a poem written for me it then became a great odyssey never seen before to reach the answer whether the seagull is in desert or not it started on 19 march 1976 which was my 17th birthday reached its pioneer words in early years of new millennium and then its first version in 2010 by doing many revisions after 41 years of this long journey i stopped it on 19 march 2017 at the end of its part 2 during my journey i faced many dreams mysteries science fictions and also places environments persons creatures and other things as a nonnative candidate writer with insufficient and maybe unattractive english needs professional edition i tried to do my best while writing this book took hundreds of a 4 pages with tens of different topics they inevitably came to surface as a result of my writing style which can be described as jumping from branch to branch i tried to organize them into subsequent paragraphs and dialogues as much as i could i made quite many revisions on that they caused me not only delay to meet you my readers but also erode its naturality they also caused me reduce time i must allocate to my family so here i would like to convey all my bests to my lovely wife daughter and son while looking for that answer with this odyssey which then became hakway the way of hakan i kidnapped by a flying carpet journeyed to mysteries fought against dragons of king agamemnon toured around the world discovered the center of the sun traveled in universe met with invisibles and came back to the world i with my light like diogenes of sinope did many things to get a clue output or something useful for reaching that answer i took my enlightenment to every possible place environment event and creature exist in this endless heavenly body ehb inşallah with the help of the creator at the end of this long journey hope to reach it with the help of your enjoy interest patience and support in april 2017 i started to write the seagull in noah s ark which can be considered as a part of this long journey i completed it in 2020 by doing many revisions it became a short book on turkish armenian relations in the history produced in light of detailed depictions of those cartoons not included in this book which only has old and new pictures of the writer of my study which i made years ago the seagull its important content and dialogues made contribution to this valuable production to me if published it will be a great asset for the history and all related sides that show interest to the subject if i can i plan to write a new book related with that subject and based on a scenario shortly given in this book after some time i started to write the third one of my the seagull in series it was including my life in golden cage years together with scenarios which might be useful for movie makers to transfer these words to movies i was planning to put it as a third one into the cover book but then i surprisingly changed my mind and made it as part 3 of the first book i continued to write its new sections with this logic and of course also hope to find that answer i was looking for in this long journey i completed that part so the book and cover book in august 2021 in may 2022 i had chance to e publish two in one cover book the seagull in desert and noah s ark with a ggkey number from an internet platform of a worldwide company with this motivation i decided to continue my book production and started to write my new book the seagull in mhakoz i quickly finished it with the help of my invisible seagull again came from planet mhakoz located in ehb with this occasion i would like to thank to this creature which then became my book friend by the way i must say that mhakoz is another short form of my full name like mhÖ or mho in english as is been in ozyurt in november 2022 i completed this new book covering my three books by making some changes inputs outputs and corrections on its other two books as much as i could i made paragraphs in beginning of the book shorter with more highlightings when you read you will see the book part 1 inevitably made up of mostly paragraphs while rest in dialogues hope to write new books continue to production and do useful things during this long journey in january 2012 i also bought a webpage having the same name with my first book put its some content and wrote something finally i would like to say that my cover book picture tells many things it together with this preface and section names in the content give some indications on this book it can include some interesting and also different historical social and global things which need some level of intellectuality after this long introduction if ready time to read the book i hope you like it
