eastern europe provides imagined biographies of twenty different figures from all walks of life living in eastern europe from 900 to 1400 moving beyond the usual boundaries of speculative history the book presents innovative and creative interpretations of the people places and events of medieval eastern europe and provides an insight into medieval life from scandinavia to byzantium each chapter explores a different figure and together they present snapshots of life across a wide range of different social backgrounds among the figures are both imagined and historical characters including the byzantine princess anna porphyrogenita a jewish traveller a slave the mongol general sübodei a woman from novgorod and a rus pilgrim a range of different narrative styles are also used throughout the book from omniscient third person narrators to diary entries letters and travel accounts by using primary sources to construct the lives of and give a voice to the types of people who existed within medieval european history portraits of medieval eastern europe provides a highly accessible introduction to the period accompanied by a new and interactive companion website it is the perfect teaching aid to support and excite students of medieval eastern europe pressured by her unscrupulous family to marry a wealthy man she detests the young clarissa harlowe is tricked into fleeing with the witty and debonair robert lovelace and places herself under his protection lovelace however proves himself to be an untrustworthy rake whose vague promises of marriage are accompanied by unwelcome and increasingly brutal sexual advances and yet clarissa finds his charm alluring her scrupulous sense of virtue tinged with unconfessed desire told through a complex series of interweaving letters clarissa is a richly ambiguous study of a fatally attracted couple and a work of astonishing power and immediacy a huge success when it first appeared in 1747 and translated into french and german it remains one of the greatest of all european novels an engaging and heartfelt romantic comedy about the two women who love oliver robinson one is his partner and the mother of his children and so is the other anna lives with oliver robinson and their 3 year old son charlie but oliver is still married to his first wife eve mother of his two teenage children eve is a dominant figure who insists on making her presence felt anna is young and beautiful with a bright future each woman is weary of the other insecure and jealous about the relationship oliver has with the other petty squabbles about the division of oliver s time and money drag on indefinitely until a terrible tragedy leaves both women shattered forced to pull together through their shared loss can they put their differences aside
