The Parenting Challenge 1994 most parents these days are looking for answers to the questions they have that they believe will help them in their efforts to be successful parents too often however they are unable to find helpful answers because they are asking the wrong questions rather than some of the more common questions like where have we gone wrong why won t jason ever listen why do they seem to prefer being at someone else s house parenting with an attitude focuses on twenty one of the more important questions to ask ourselves if it is our desire to make improvements in our parenting efforts asking the right questions helps to fine tune our parenting attitudes and in doing so helps ensure that we raise healthy and responsible kids who grow up to be well adjusted adults parenting with an attitude is different than most books written on parenting today what sets it apart is that it focuses more on our efforts and attitudes as parents to our kids and what we can do differently rather than on the attitude of our kids and how we can somehow extract changes from them as our attitudes improve we will see the changes we desire in them to help you in this process i have included at the end of each chapter several discussion questions for you to consider

The Answer Book 1998 have you ever tried to change another person if you have you probably know it is next to impossible most parenting books teach parents how to change the child the parent fix focuses on the parents emphasizing a parent's need to change to inspire family improvement if our greatest joys and sorrows come from family relationships are we truly happy when we are in control of our loved ones that deep joy we are searching for comes as we watch those we love learn lessons that change their own lives to have this change it is the parent who must change in today's age of troubled youth broken families and mixed messages from the media our families are fighting a tough battle to succeed with the increase in drug and alcohol addiction eating disorders gang violence and teenage suicide many of our families are failing parents need help there is power in parenting correct parenting rather than focusing on the kids as so many other self help books do the parent fix stresses that when parents change kids change focusing on key principles like correct judgement taking time education and more stevens provides concrete ways parents can change their own behavior to improve the behavior of their children as a mother maggie spent years researching and found the answers needed to successfully raise five children with over thirty years of practical experience maggie knows the answers that make a difference when parents change kids change
