A Theology of Lordship 2015-02-10 everyone believes something but how and why do people believe what counts as evidence how much can be assumed or believed by faith alone when it comes to religious faith the questions become at once more difficult and more important over the centuries christians have offered different approaches to explaining or defending the christian faith a discipline known as apologetics but it has not always been clear how different apologetic methods work or what each approach has to offer in this comprehensive survey brian morley provides an overview of christian apologetic approaches and how they differ he explores the historical and philosophical underpinnings of key figures and major schools of thought from the presuppositionalism of cornelius van til to the evidentialism of gary habermas moving beyond theory morley also covers apologetic application demonstrating how each view works out in practical terms this guide covers the complexities of apologetics in a way that is accessible to the nonspecialist even handed and respectful of each apologist and their contribution this book provides the reader with a formidable array of defenses for the faith

The Doctrine of the Christian Life 2021-01-26 are we following jesus the wrong way do you ever wonder if maybe following jesus has been a little too complicated like there are too many badges to earn or bridges to cross to be a disciple what happens in many churches is very rarely discipleship more often it is a nice religious service or class it should be very concerning to us that we are not making disciples if we can t even define what a disciple is and yet we have thousands of disciple making ministries shouldn t that at least cause us to question if we ve actually defined the problem that discipleship is intended to solve it seems like there is a different definition of discipleship for every christian you talk to if we can t even agree on a definition is it any surprise that churches are creating disengaged christians who can t answer basic questions of christianity don t seem to care about christian ethics and don t really seem to experience the presence of god this book is an attempt to create a common definition based on one of the most foundational christian doctrines the trinity to help churches and people obey the command to make disciples

Teologia Sistemática (volume 2) 1995 provides a basic introduction to the concept of open theism includes a summary of prominent open theist arguments and the responses to them

Mapping Apologetics 2001 with an appendix containing a full analysis of the debts of the united states the several states municipalities etc also statements of street railway and traction companies industrial corporations etc statement omitted on later vols

Trinitarian Formation 1911 how we come to our conclusions about ethical issues matters as much as the specific policies or practices we commend this book argues that four key doctrines form a theological perspective for environmental ethics they are the key ideas upon which people build their ethics of the environment by looking at the doctrines of revelation creation anthropology and eschatology we can find points of contact to work together more effectively for the common good and have more meaningful debates when our positions differ this book uses examples from four different theological positions ecotheology theological liberalism fundamentalism and evangelicalism to show that a creation positive ethic is possible from all of these positions and it explores why people who stand within various theological streams may engage in environmental issues in diverse ways

Making Biblical Decisions (Part Two) 2022-01-13 john frame s a theology of lordship series has been greeted with acclaim the doctrine of god receiving an ecpa gold medallion award this fourth and final volume in the series discusses god s word in modern theology and how god s word comes to us as his controlling power meaningful authority and personal presence dr frame says that god s speech to man is real like one person speaking to another god speaks so that we can understand him and respond appropriately appropriate responses are of many kinds belief obedience affection repentance laughter pain sadness and so on god s speech is often propositional god s conveying information to us but it is far more than that it includes all the features functions beauty and richness of language that we see in human communication and more so the concept i wish to defend is broader than the propositional revelation that we argued so ardently forty years ago though propositional revelation is part of it my thesis is that god's word in all its qualities and aspects is a personal communication from him to us book jacket Cornelius Van Til 2010 everyone is a philosopher and how we live reveals what we most deeply believe if you and god were asked the same question would you both respond in the same way are christians right to believe what we do in we are all philosophers john m frame takes seven major questions of philosophy and compares the bible's answers with common philosophical ones what is everything made of do i have free will can i know the world does god exist how shall i live what are my rights how can i be saved we are all philosophers carries all the marks of john frame's books he appeals to scripture frequently and carefully he writes elegantly and simply a byproduct of having mastered the complicated philosophical topics he surveys

No Other God 2019 endorsements liturgical presbyterians no this is not an oxymoron d g hart has written a lively polemic against the well intentioned dumbing down of worship by advocates of church growth this book is going to make some people very mad and it will make others very glad those who have thrown away the theological substance of the great reformed tradition of christian worship ought to be mad hart shames them and yet for those whose privilege it is to praise and serve god in a church that enjoys the reformed way of worship in all its depth glory and joy this book is a great summons to faithfulness in our time william h willimon duke divinity school beginning to realize just how much they have been shaped by non reformed influences conservative presbyterian and reformed churches are now being forced to decide between a generic low church protestantism a high church tradition or oddly enough a more traditional reformed and presbyterian approach d g hart believes that reformed theology provides resources not only for understanding that we are saved but also for how we worship and mature in the christian faith there's a lot of wisdom here and whether one agrees or disagrees with hart his well considered arguments cannot be responsibly ignored by adherents of reformed christianity michael horton editor in chief modern reformation unabashedly writing to inform rouse and serve his fellow presbyterians d g hart has nonetheless produced a book that is properly and profoundly ecumenical christians from all communions who take seriously the identity and nature of the church will learn from hart's analysis of the complex arrangement under god of cult and culture form and content church and state praise and proclamation cross and crown hart reminds us that the chronicles of the people of god always offer encouragement to strengthen feeble arms weak knees and lazy minds ken myers host and producer of the mars hill audio journal hart's book combines world class scholarship with keen social and ecclesiastical awareness and should be read and reread by those who want to transmit the piety and ethos of the reformed tradition to the next generation terry l johnson independent presbyterian church savannah georgia

Doctrine in Shades of Green 1901 this book is an important part of the historical record of dr norman l geisler it displays geisler's intellectual gifts and devotion to the lordship of christ in his defense of christianity and classic evangelicalism this book written by one of geisler's long time and trusted assistants will be of importance to those who want a first hand interpretation of geisler and the significance of geisler's method for present day evangelicalism it provides a clear assessment of the impact of geisler's embrace of classical realism classical theism the doctrine of inerrancy in the context of twentieth century evangelical theology while providing a way forward to apply geisler's method in the twenty first century

The Doctrine of the Word of God 2018-04-18 more than any other theological tradition reformed federalism has recognized the importance of the biblical teaching on the covenants in its system of doctrine this tradition came to mature confessional status in the writing of the westminster confession of faith and catechisms the place of the westminster tradition within the stream of christian history and theology is remarkable indeed westminster not only gained recognition as the epitome of calvinist teaching at the close of the protestant reformation the middle of the seventeenth century it also earned the reputation for precision and comprehensiveness in doctrinal formulation it became the measure by which biblical interpreters defended their systems of doctrine either in agreement or disagreement with the theology of the Westminster divines these writings are the climax of three decades of research and study and they appear as the third in the series of collections published by Wipf and Stock beginning with covenant theology in reformed perspective followed by Gospel Grace the modern day controversy the critical teaching in dispute in each of these studies is the classic Protestant antithesis between the law and the gospel what serves as the basis for the reformed doctrine of the twofold covenants the covenant of works and the covenant of grace Protestant reformed orthodoxy now stands at the crossroads the plight of Westminster Seminary East and West is merely illustrative of the depth and the intensity of the contemporary theological dispute one impacting the future of Protestant evangelicalism as a whole the battle is between historic reformed Protestantism and modern day revisionism of a radical sort the rapid rise of postmodernism or nonfoundationalism is indicative of the rapidly changing mood and posture in Evangelical biblical scholarship at the opening of this third millennium of Christian interpretation without question the modern church continues to lose her biblical moorings forsaking the basic theological convictions of the Protestant Reformation it has attempted to subject the word of God to vigorous academic or scientific investigation the return of rationalism in doing so it has abandoned the Scripture principle which recognizes the uniquely authoritative and inerrant character of the word of God lost in the shuffle is the uncompromising proclamation of the one true Gospel the Gospel of justification by grace through faith alone lost also is the doctrine of the perspicuity of Scripture nothing less than a new reformation in our day will halt travel down the road leading to destruction from the preface

Official Register of the United States 2006-10-15 the Bible is God's word the Bible teaches us how we should live the Bible is something we should read every day the Bible is something we should enjoy reading most of us agree with these statements at least in theory but what's our reality sometimes reading the Bible is a delight but if we're honest many times reading the Bible feels like hard work and we read out of a sense of obligation some of us have given up entirely Tim Chester reminds us that every time we read the Bible we hear the voice of God the one who spoke and brought the universe into existence whose voice thundered from Mount Sinai and whose words healed the sick is who speaks to us today so as we read the Bible we don't merely learn information about God we hear his voice and encounter his presence including a study guide for group use this book helps us approach reading the Bible with an eager anticipation expecting to hear God's voice and meet him in his word

Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies, Issue 3.1 1857 the reformed two kingdom project has generated a great deal of literature however this literature is often characterized by inflamed rhetoric further though it is standard fare to assume that Kline was the architect of the project in reality there has been very little scholarly examination of this point in response Kline's system is analyzed through the means of a dialectical discourse with three differing models within the reformed tradition the theonomist perspectivalist and Dooyeweerdian schools through this means the study keeps away from surface level polemics and instead directs readers to the critically important substructural level of current discussions while clarifying some of the key differences between Kline and his interlocutors often overlooked points of nuance are also highlighted these points are shown to be important in that they present the potential to lessen frustration and impasse in the ongoing dialogue

Annual Report of the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York for the year 1858 2022-11-23 among the many recent discussions of the nature and authority of scripture I would judge this to be one of the most valuable particularly in those essays that deal with the actual phenomena of the text of scripture it displays a level of sophistication and of sympathetic awareness of alternative views that has too often been lacking in contrast to the backs to the wall tone of some conservative defenses of inerrancy these authors write for the most part with the confidence of those who have a coherent and well grounded position to offer the volume will I believe both help to commend evangelical doctrine to those who suspect it of blind obscurantism and also contribute significantly to mutual understanding among evangelicals who are too ready to polarize over their different assessments of what it means to honor scripture as the word of God R. T. France Vice Principal London Bible College these thought minded essays are the channel through which conservative scholars must steer for competent interaction with current critical theories for helpful direction in focusing the battle over scripture and for reflection of conflict areas that evangelicals must themselves resolve this work rises above the shallow shadow boxing over inerrancy and engages central concerns with academic ability and dignity it puts on the agenda issues that evangelical leaders must now wrestle does the bible contain different kinds of truth is all divine revelation rational is the canon really post apostolic no reader will agree with all that is said some will loudly disagree here and there but all students will be stimulated and serious readers edified at the frontiers of current debate Carl F.
