Twenty Five Milk Runs (and a Few Others) 2004

many years ago probably around thirty or forty i used to relate to friends and family some of the happenings to me when i was very young and when i was growing up and they seemed amazed that i was able to remember so far back and also in such detail now to me it seemed normal as i ive always thought that when one has some sort of incident or situation that is profound in its entirety then it is impressed into the brain whether it is something traumatic or joyful it stamps itself into your memory bank so as ive said i was always being asked to try and write down my memories of certain times in my childhood and youth but of course the biggest drawback was finding the time to be able to do it when you have a family and are engaged in earning a living which was of course the priority and other things took precedence

the perfect rifle for hunting small game and varmints in settled and semi settled agricultural and grazing districts should be quiet safe to shoot there and inexpensive and owing to the small size of the vital areas of most of such game should be superlatively accurate its bullet should whenever possible either expand and remain in the game or destroy itself completely upon impact with earth sod stones or rock it should kill well yet not cause needless mangling or suffering the 22 caliber rifle both in the rim fire and in the flatter shooting center fire gives the least report throws the lightest and smallest projectile is among the most accurate of all calibers and is the least expensive to shoot in the 22 long rifle caliber it is also the easiest to supply with factory ammunition which can be purchased at nearly any village hardware store in center fire it is cheap to reload has very light recoil and causes but little annoyance to farmers and stock raisers in eastern farming or estate country the 22 caliber both rim and center fire is the quietest and yet the most effective of all our rifle calibers for either field or woods hunting of small game in short from the thoroughly practical standpoint of being usable where any sort of rifled firearm may be shot it has more advantages and fewer disadvantages than any other caliber further the use of a 22 caliber rifle in the field or in the forests is much like the use of a 20 gauge shotgun on quail or a fine fly rod to dangle dry flies before trout or small mouth black bass it is the equipment of the man of appreciation and discernment who wishes to develop and depend upon skill rather than upon force and smashing power after all most of us go hunting for sport we wish to enjoy ourselves to the full while gunning consequently we do not wish to be stopped neither do most of us wish to annoy landowners nevertheless we need a weapon of precision great mechanical refinement x ring accuracy and yet which is of a type which appeals to those who have substituted skill and ability in hunting and shooting for the 30 killing pattern of the 12 gauge shotgun the real story of what has been done can be done and what you can do if properly equipped and instructed and shooting a splendidly accurate properly sighted precision built 22 caliber rifle in field and forest has never been adequately told in a book exclusively devoted to hunting and shooting small game and varmints with 22 caliber rifles the author went into this as much as space permitted in 1931 in 22 caliber rifle shooting but that work is now out of print the issue having become exhausted this book by text and illustration covers the subject it is in no part a work of fiction the shooting related in this book actually occurred it tells you exactly how to hunt successfully and to shoot each common variety of north american small game and varmints where to find them how to locate and hunt them and gives numerous examples of rifles and cartridges which produced unusual results for the youth or the man with his first 22 caliber rifle for the small bore target shot who has enjoyed only one half of an experience with a 22 rifle the remaining half to be found afield and for the crank rifleman reloader small bore ballistics shark and experimenter this book is a must read this work in the spirit in which it was written that of sportsmen writing one to another of old timers in the game of field shooting giving their experiences their hunting lore their ammunition developments their misses and their long range hits this is the book for any small game and varmint hunter who has a rifle and wants to use it more successfully if you can read this work without learning anything about hunting with the small caliber rifle you certainly know game shooting with the 22 rifle may it bring you many happy days in the field the padre of the 86th brigade 29th division gives an account of his experiences at gallipoli where he landed on 25th april 1915 to his evacuation on medical grounds on 12th august it covers the period 27th january 1915 when he reported to the hq of the newly formed 29th division in leamington to 12th august 1915 when he arrived in alexandria having been evacuated sick diphtheria from the peninsula the 86th brigade was a fusilier brigade with 2nd royal fusiliers 1st lancashire fusiliers 1st royal munster fusiliers and 1st royal dublin fusiliers and it was the first to land on 25th april 1915 it was with the first two mentioned that creighton had most contact and they feature prominently in this account the other two battalions being recruited mainly from the south of ireland were predominantly rc creighton had come straight from civvy street and took a little while to find his feet among regular troops this account is based on his diary and he took pains to write only what he got firsthand and from personal observation and he has tried to be as accurate as possible the interesting photos were borrowed from the co of 2nd rf and his narrative does give a feel for the conditions and fighting on the peninsula at one stage he gives vent to his feelings after a fruitless attack by a brigade of the newly arrived 52nd lowland division which cost over fifty percent casualties these things seem to happen every battle the amount of unnecessary lives simply thrown away is appalling the book closes with a chapter by the bm major h m farmar on the landing of the 86th brigade and the subsequent operations till 3rd may n m print version author rev creighton oswin 1883 1918 text taken whole and complete from the edition published in london longmans green and co 1916 original page count xiv and 191 pages illustrations 26 maps and illustrations
