There is No Suffering 2001 surveying spiritual and philosophical traditions this volume revives the search for wisdom for modern times what is wisdom and how is it cultivated these are among the most important questions we can ask but

questions that have been routinely ignored in modern times in the twentieth century the search for wisdom was replaced by a search for knowledge as science and technology promised answers to life's ills however along with scientific achievements came disasters particularly the devastation of the planet through the accelerating use of modern technology in an era drenched in data a desire for wisdom has been reborn where can we go to learn about wisdom the answer is clear to the world's great religions and their accompanying philosophies and psychologies the world's great wisdom makes these treasures available practitioners from each of the great religions as well as from western philosophy and contemporary research provide summaries of their traditions understandings of wisdom the means for cultivating it and its implications for the modern world this book offers distillations of the world's accumulated wisdom ancient and modern religious and scientific philosophical and psychological it is a unique resource that for the first time in history brings together our collective understanding of wisdom and the ways to develop it

From Here to Enlightenment 2013-01-08 for the first time for general readers the dalai lama presents a comprehensive overview of the most important teaching of buddhism perhaps the main difference between buddhism and other religions is its understanding of our core identity the existence of the soul or self which is central in different ways to hinduism judaism christianity and islam is actually denied in buddhism even further belief in a self is seen as the main source of our difficulties in life yet a true understanding of this teaching does not lead one to a despairing cynical worldview with a sense that life has no meaning far from it a genuine understanding leads to authentic happiness for an individual and the greatest source of compassion for others in 2003 and in 2007 the dalai lama was invited to new york to give a series of talks on the essential buddhist view of selflessness this new book the result of those talks is now offered to help broaden awareness of this essential doctrine and its usefulness in living a more meaningful and happy life while the dalai lama offers a full presentation of his teachings on these key philosophical points for contemplation he also shows readers how to bring these teachings actively into their own lives with recommendations for a personal practice it is only by actually living these teachings that we allow them to bring about a genuine transformation in our perception of ourselves and our lives a profound mind offers important wisdom for those committed to bringing about change in the world through developing their own spiritual capabilities whether they are buddhists or not
